Listening Centers

The University of Kentucky maintains more than eighty radio listening centers, located for the most part, in remote sections of the Kentucky mountains, to provide listening facilities for those areas. Counties having one or more such centers are Leslie, Letcher, Knott, Harlan, Bell, Clay, Breathitt, Martin, Morgan, Estill, Lee, and Magoffin.

Courses in Radio

Operated as a division of the College of Arts and Sciences, the department of Radio Arts offers class instruction in RADIO TODAY, RADIO ANNOUNCING, and RADIO ACTING, making close use of WBKY as a laboratory in the training of students.
